AGM minutes

- The minutes from last year's AGM on 24 September 2019 were agreed to be a true and fair report of the meeting.

President's report

Jodie welcomed old and new faces to the AGM and offered a written President's report (attached to these minutes). She thanked the committee for all their hard work, as well as the school staff for their help with events, in particular for the Christmas fair.

Treasurer's report

In Julie provided an overview of the Treasurer's Report (attached to these minutes) for the year ending 31 August 2020. Funds totaling £14,627 were raised after deducting expenses and overheads.

Appointment of an Independent Examiner of Accounts for the year ending 31 August 2020

The auditing of accounts by school parent will be organised by Julie Robinson.

Fund raising schemes

Due to the current social distancing restrictions events will need to be small. The committee were asked to think of any ideas and forward to Julie G, Laura and Jodie for consideration and consultation with the school.

These will then be discussed at the next committee meeting.

Head Teacher's report

Mrs Ivil thanked the PTA for their work last year and highlighted the value of the items purchased by the PTA in improving the experience for the children particularly the new reading scheme books.
