

The SEND Inclusion Award (SENDIA) offers mainstream schools the opportunity to gain accreditation for high-quality provision and outcomes for children with special educational needs and disabilities. The award leads schools through a process of self-evaluation, action planning and evidence collection before final verification and accreditation. We are currently in the process of gaining the award and verification will take place in June.